Heart Fund Donations Under Goal

The Southwest gave with a heart but the Heart Fund goal is not complete.

First returns from Heart Sunday Weekend in the Southwest region show $27,583 or 61.27 per cent of the goal, according to Mrs. William C. Field of Rolling Hills regional Heart Sunday chairman.

Heart volunteers have until next Saturday to complete the local goal of $45,000.

Returns reported are: Dominguez, $320.00; El Segundo, $600.78; Gardena, $2,595.06; Hawthorne, $1,845.16; Hermosa Beach, $698.05; Inglewood/Lennox, $3,501.58; Lawndale, $806.46; and Lomita/Harbor City, $1,083.21.

Manhattan Beach, $1,474.80; Playa Del Rey, $605.72; Redondo Beach, $1,775.50; San Pedro, $1,973.20; Torrance/Waltheria, $4,805.76; Westchester, $2,304.12; Wilmington, $1,858.60; Mailing from Miraleste, Palos Verdes, Portuguese Bend, and Rolling Hills, $1,335.00.

"We hope people who were not at home during the drive will lose no time in mailing a contribution to the local Heart Assn. office at 16811 Hawthorne Blvd. Lawndale," said Mrs. Field.

Los Angeles Enrollments Top 733,000

Spring semester enrollment in the Los Angeles City Schools totaled 733,335 at the end of the week, according to superintendent of schools Jack P. Crowther.

Locally, Fleming Junior High School reported an enrollment of 1,869 students and Stephen M. White Junior High School said 2,531 students were attending classes.

Narbonne High School had registered 1,823 students, Banning High School listed 1,820, and Carson High School said 1,997 students were enrolled in classes.

Harbor Junior College, a part of the Los Angeles Schools, said registration figures showed 4,726 students attending classes.

ACS Reverts To Individual Fund Crusade

Al Hughes, local crusade chairman for the American Cancer Society disclosed to April crusade volunteers the society's major reasons for reverting to its original policy of an independent crusade as opposed to joining the United Fund Appeal.

Hughes cited the distribution of life-saving leaflets on cancer's seven danger signals would be precluded in a United Fund Appeal and that by becoming a part of a combined program the society's threefold program of research, education and service would be diffused.

"Another major reason," related Hughes, "is the society's fund-raising costs are always among the lowest in Los Angeles County and the nation."
